NEVADA CITY NUGGET GRASS VALLEY

A TWICE-A-WEEK NEWSPAPER MONDAY AND THURSDAY

Vol. 20, No. 84 | The County Seat Paper | NEVADA CITY-GRASS VALLEY, CALIFORNIA | The Twin Cities Paper | THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1946

BROAD STREET

By Harley M. Leete, Jr.

TRY THESE ON FOR SIZE

This tall young man has a scholarly look due, perhaps, to his spectacles. The scholastic decor conveals an elastic sense of humor, and wittiness without stint. He has a slender build, senatorial bearing and a booming baritone excellently adapted to public speaking, of which he's done plenty. His recent occupation was less secular than his present, which has to do with the tabulation of forest products (are you getting warm?) He lives with his wife and children in an enormous house on Indian Flat Road. His inclinations are literary, but that's a secret, so keep it quiet. Favorite saying: "There is no god but Allah, and you, my friend, are his prophet."

This robust young man wears his hair short. He's got blue eyes with considerable snap in them and lives with wife and two kinder in the house they bought an Aristocracy Hill. His garb: An army shirt (is there anyone who doesn't wear them?) a blue and green plaid tie, grey pants, and—shoes. His business: He is an executive of a very new company which has recently taken over a very old and profitable company (warm yet?) Favorite saying: "Why, that cheap, tinhorn outfit of yours—"

Thirty eight is young and so is this big curly-haired man. He's as native as the big oaks that grow on the hills here. That black hair is threaded with silver. If a 'most popular man in Grass Valley and Nevada City contest were held" he would be high man or mighty close to it. He lives on Piety Hill, but he's not particularly pious. His successful business career was terminated by the war in which he went out of his way to volunteer. He edited an army paper in Naples. After that he worked for old U. Sam for a short stretch and now he's working—(not still cold, are you?)

He wears a brown sport coat, sport shirt, necktie and brown trouers. He doesn't have any favorite saying, but is trying to develop one so it can be used in this column to characterize him.

Art school in San Francisco is where this young man developed his artistic yens. He is a dude, if wearing suede shoes makes a man a dude in Nevada City and it does. He knows everyone and everyone knows him. He is slight, but not short in stature. You're getting too warm, so the snapper is reserved or the last couple of sentences. Sartorial scouts recently drew the conclusion that he, Fred Nobs and Phillip Bradley must have all been at the same party before the Kullman concert, because they wore the same combination of black and white. If you're still guessing, stupid ones, this is the man who recently battled bees with his hunting and fishing hat, battled and won, because they tried to do him in and failed miserably. He's full of pep, and as a matter of fact, (you know who is meant by now anyway) just opened a bright gifty shoppy that lends a touch of chic to Nevada City.

Nugget Biographies

Last week was National Business Woman's Week. The Nugget in this biography salutes one of Grass Valley's guiding lights in BPWC activities, Mrs. Marie Williford, Northern District President, California Federation Business and Professional Women's Clubs. Inc.

Mrs. Marie Williford

Back in 1932 Mrs. Williford helped organize the Grass Valley Chapter of the Business and Professional Women's Club, and is a past president of the group. Active in the district after being a local president, she resigned when she moved away.

Almost every one in Grass Valley has heard the pleasant voice of Marie Williford on the telephone. For fifteen years she held the important position of Chief Operator in the local exchange of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Wishing to be a direct part in the war effort, Mrs. Williford left Grass Valley in October 1942 to accept a responsible position with the IV Fighter Command in Oakland. She was Chief Operator of Army Exchange with the IV Fighter Command under the supervision of Colonel Robert Frost, Signal Officer in charge. The Commanding General was colorful Wm. E. Kepner, better known in army circles as "Wild Bill" Kepner.

Mrs. Williford was with the IV Fighter Command from October 1942 to its deactivation in April 1944. Few people realized the importance of the IV Fighter Command on the Pacific Coast.

Returning to Grass Valley in May 1944 she became receptionist and office nurse for Dr. Harry N. March, a position which she still holds.

In April 1946 she was honored by being elected District President of the California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. The Grass Valley members are very proud of the prestige Mrs. Williford has brought to their club. Club members are always quick to admire her leadership abilities and her manner in conducting meetings. She will be seated in the chair of honor at the District Conference to be held in Marysville on January 26, 27, 1947. The minutes or the local chapter record the many constructive suggestions that Mrs. Williford has contributed in the past 14 years since the Grass Valley chapter gots its charter.

INDIAN FLAT ROAD WILL BE COMPLETED

H. S. Foreman, president of the Nevada City Chamber of Commerce, has received a letter from the California Highway Commission stating that $65,000 has been appropriated to complete a section of Highway 49, about two miles in length immediately adjoining Nevada City and extending to Indian Flat. The work the commission stated, will be started at the appropriate time for seasonal construction.

The road which had been constructed to replace, a narrow winding, dangerous section leading to Indian Flat and to Downeville, Sierra County was abandoned when the war began, with nothing but the surfacing remaining to be done.

The letter substantiating the appeal by the chamber in September recites that "since the war and because of the lumber shortage, there has been a very rapid increase in truck traffic, which together with the normal traffic, particularly the school buses creates a very critical situation."

Miss Edith L. Matagliati Weds Willis Webber

The marriage of Miss Edith L. Maltagliati and Willis A. Webber took place Sunday at 2 a. m. at the home of the bride on the McCourtney Road. Rev. Jesse Rudkin pastor of the Methodist Church officiated.

It was a double ring ceremony attended by many family friends and relatives. Following the wedding a breakfast was served in the bride's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Webber will make their home in Glenwood following their honeymoon.

Mrs. Englehart And Son Slightly Hurt In Canyon Plunge

Mother and son narrowly escaped death Tuesday when their car plunged over Highway 40 near Blue Canyon Airport. Mrs. Irene Englehart 33 and William, her 4 year old son escaped with minor injuries and were able to be taken to their home in Truckee.

The car plunged 80 feet down the canyon.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

Officers and members of the American Legion Auxiliary met Wednesday evening, October 23, in the Veterans Memorial Building and initiated a large class.

Escort teams wore their formals. Earlier in the evening the members of the drill team held a short practice session.

LOCAL VFW ASK DEFEAT OF PROPOSITION 2

The local Veterans of Foreign Wars went on reord at their meeting Monday as being unanimously opposed to Proposition No. 2 greyhound racing, on the November ballot. In an unprecedented move for the local post of the VFW, they have acted contrary to the recommendations of the district and state department of the organization.

Number Two on the ballot is being ballyhooed as an aid to veterans with funds collected to be assigned to veterans rehabilitation. Radio, newspaper and large billboards have attempted to use the veteran as a smokescreen to get twice refused dog racing legalized in California.

The measure was denounced in Tuesday's meeting of Banner Mt. Post, No. 2655, Veterans of Foreign Wars. The consensus of opinion expressed at the meeting was that the care of the disabled veteran is a federal responsibility and while state help in some cases would be welcome, the source of the funds should not be from gambling interests. Four cents only from every profit dollar collected is to be assigned to veterans help, ninety six cents to the private interests behind the scheme. The local veterans were vehement in their expressions to sponsor no legislation that was contrary to everybody's good.

Those in attendance particularly wanted the two communities to know that the large billboard between the two towns was erected by private interests and did not carry the endorsement of the local VFW.

A social session followed the meeting with three reels of movies, What We Fought For shown to an appreciative audience.

Private Funeral Service For Mrs. Olivia Sommers

Mrs. Somners was born in this city 47 years ago and was employed for many years as a waitress in the National Hotel.

Surviving are her father T. W. Sigourney and brother, Ted Sigourney Jr., both of this city and a sister Mrs. Cleo Harris of Grass Valley.

Rev. Joseph Moore conducted the services and interment will be in the Pine Grove Cemetery.

RENTED CAR ROMEO FOILED IN TRUCKEE

Walter Sales, 34 fireman, was arraigned yesterday on charges of kidnaping Mrs. Mary Giovannoni, Truckee housewife, who reported she was forced into an auto at the point of a gun.

Deputy Sheriff Harold Hodson quoted the woman as saying she got the gun away from Sales as he drove the rented car towards Scramento. Sse threw the gun away, jumped out and flagged a passing automobile.

Sales was arrested Tuesday in Reno and brought to Truckee.

The complaint was filed by Geno Giovannino, Truckee businessman, husband of Mrs. Mary Giovannoni. Sales recently was released from the Nevada County jail after serving less than sixty days of a 180 day sentence imposed by Justice of the Peace R. N. Little of Truckee after his conviction on a charge of threatening Mrs. Giovannoni with a loaded revolver at the Southern Pacific roundhouse where she is employed.

According to the complaint, Sales rented a car in Reno, and returning to the Southern Pacific roundhouse at Truckee Monday night, forced Mrs. Giovannoni at gun point to accompany him.

Sales was lodged in Nevada County jail Tuesday for violatiog his parole. The revolver was found by highway patrolmen near where Mrs. Giovannoni left the car.

Sales was formerly a Southern Pacific fireman.

Two Deer For Three Viscias On Last Day

Two deer were brought down by three members of the Viscia family when they closed the hunting season in the Bear River country.

Walter Viscia, the senior member of the family killed a 3 pointer while Edward Viscia doubled the horn score by getting a 6 pointer. Francis "Skeet" Viscia fired a few shots, but came home empty handed.

Chamber Recommends Single Charity Fund, Charter Amendment

Two recommendations, both concerned with a more efficiently operated city, were endorsed by the directors of the Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce at their noon luncheon meeting at the Bret Harte Inn yesterday. One proposition was the amending of the City of Grass Valley charter to permit an increase in the number of its council members and the other approved suggestion was to have one single charity drive yearly to eliminate the series of single contribution requests made on the merchants following one on the other in the fall of the year.

The matter of amending the Grass Valley charter or replacing it with a new one has long been part of the unfinished business of the chamber. A study of proposed changes was investigated by a committee headed by Loyle Freeman a year ago but due to the time element of getting the request for a change before the state legislature no action wa staken. Recently a member of the Grass Valley council, Lloyd S. Weeks, appeared before the chamber of commerce, requesting that a committee be appointed to investigate the present charter in view of bringing it up to date in line with a growing cities' needs.

President Wesley Donnenwirth called attention to the delays and requested the director's approval to get action to start the necessary machinery to improve the antiquated charter. Preliminary discussion included the feasibility of three, five or seven men councils. It is expected that the entire matter will be presented to the people in the near future.

The constant repetition of money drives on the merchants was deplored by William H. Stinson, Grass Valley real estate man, as being annoying to the donor and unproductive in results.

He called attention to four drives now in process of collection or to follow in the near future, namely the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, USO, and the Salvation Army. Stinston stressed the worthiness of each of these requests for funds and hoped they would meet with usual generosity of the citizens, but called attention to the business like way of one request a year so that the merchant could budget his donations and know that the funds collected would be distributed fairly. One worthy organization, the Red Cross, cannot be a part of a single drive and make their request as a separate unit.

This is a nation wide policy of the Red Cross and is respected in other cities having single fund drives. It was suggested by Mr. Stinson that part of the fund collected in the drive be kept for emergency charitable needs in Grass Valley. Realizing that it is too late to act in 1946, the motion to act now for 1947 was made by Dr. Daniel Hirsch, who suggested the all-in-one collection for established charitable and worthy organizations be called the United Service Drive. The chamber directors approved and detailed arrangements will be worked out in committee.

Several committees made reports at the meeting.

Art Remple, chairman of the annual Halloween party reported that plans have been completed for a costume parade to finish at the Veterans Memorial Building with games to be played and prizes to be awarded.

Dr. Daniel Hirsch said that discussions on the hospital situation had taken place following the report of two members of the board of health who appeared before the chamber recently and that a meeting with the Grass Valley Memorial Hospital Association would soon take place.

Ray Kronemeyer said a very definite program for the state wide celebration of the approaching centennial was made at the meeting he attended in San Francisco. It is planned to issue commemorative samps and fifty cent coins. Each section will list local points of interest and will be marked for the large influx of visitors expected in the centennial years.

Decalcomanias to be pasted on Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce member's windows were ordered and will be distributed free to merchant members and to other chamber members for wall plaques. A mining motive to show local atmopshere will be used and will contain either the phrases—Grass Valley, Golden Chest of the Golden West or Gateway to Nevada and Sierra Counties Wonderland.

Press of business did not permit the planned discussion on state ballot measures to be voted on at the November 5th eletion. However the recommendations of the California State Chamber of Commerce were made available at the chamber office. The State Chamber recommendations follow:

No. 1 Veteran's Bond Act of 1946—Yes.

No. 2 Greyhound Racing—No.

No. 4 Business Loans for Veterans—No.

No. 5 Creation of Court for Tax Appeals—Yes.

No. 6 Annual Sessions of the Legislature—No.

No. 7 County Boards of Education—Yes.

No. 8 County Superintendents of Schools—No

No 9 State Superintendent of Public Instruction—No

No 10 Salary of the governor—Yes.

No. 11 Fair Employment Practices Act—No.

No. 12 Amendment of Laws Adopted by Initiative—Yes.

No. 14 Disability of Governor to Act—Yes.

No. 16 Repeal of Education Poll Tax—Yes.

No. 17 Public Utilities Commission—Yes.

On several propositions the State Chamber did not make recommendations.

FIRE SERVICE IN G. V. BOUNDED BY CITY LIMITS

The Grass Valley City Council has reaffirmed its stand against permitting the use of its fire equipment or services of firemen or policemen in districts outside the city limits, unless the residents of the districts are taking legal steps to become part of the city of Grass Valley.

The action followed a petition received by residents of Kendallco, adjacent to Memorial Park, asking that these services be continued while plans are completed for annexation. The council indicated that if active, legal measures were taken for annexation the services requested would be granted.

The firm of McGuire & McGuire told the council that the topographical map of the city had been completed, and that he was awaiting the arrival of Whipple and Thomas representatives, sanitary engineers of Palo Alto before proceeding with surveys for a sewage disposal plant and expansion of the sewage system.

FILE THIS FOR ARBOR DAY, MARCH 7

Before you get on your high horse and say "What an inappropriate time for an Arbor Day editorial!" let a man get a word in edgewise.

Just now, despite the damage of the first rains, the sugar maples are at their peak of fall beauty. Artists come from down below to paint them. Nevada City's maples are one of the town's finest assets.

Why don't we do what a business man would do?

When a business man has exceptional assets, does he just say, "That's great", and sit back and relax? Obviously not.

The suggestion here is this: Let's be business-like about increasing the charm of our city. Let's capitalize on our present assets by increasing them.

If a couple of dozen flaming red sugar maples are good, a hundred are a lot better. If we had a hundred bursting into a symphony of color at the same time every fall, Nevada City might be well on the way to fame and fortune.

So here's the suggestion, civic organizations, garden clubs and community leaders. When Luther Burbank's birthday, Arbor Day, rolls around next March 7, let's do justice to the genius of growing things and get a movement under way to plant a 100 sugar maples in Nevada City.

File it, but don't forget it. H. M. L. Jr.

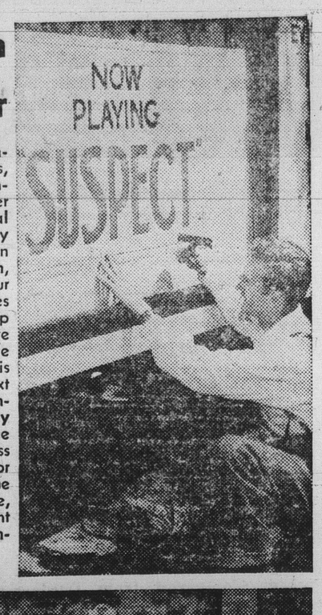
SLAP DOWN THE DOGS

Proposition No. 2 on the ballot November 5th, providing for day and night dog racing with all its chicanery and, often, cruelty to the animals, which was dressed up as a benefit for war veterans, has been turned down cold by Banner Mountain Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, of this city.

It had already received a thumbs down from the American Legion in state and local posts. The veterans say they want no benefits at the expense of the California public. The reputation of dog racing tracks smells not so much of honestly panting and sweating on the trail of a phony rabbit, as it does of human varmints who prey on the gullible and the foolish, who as the Good Book remarks are soon parted with their money.

It can be argued that the fool and his money are bound to be parted in good time, but we do feel that the great state of California should not offer him another opportunity. — H. M. L.

Two Vets Open Summer Theater



Two Washington, D. C., radio announcers, both World War II veterans, have used a Veterans Administration-approved loan to reopen a summer theater at nearby Olney, Md. The rural theater had been closed since the early days of gasoline rationing. Glenn Taylor (tacking up the current attraction, right) and Redge Allen split a 14-hour working day between announcing duties and theater work. Expenses gobbled up most of the first year's take, but both are optimistic about the future. "We didn't expect to make a killing this season," Allen said, "but wait until next summer." Taylor (left) and Allen convoy their leading lady, Miss Rosemary Murphy, in for morning rehearsal in the center photo. In the lower picture, Miss Mimi Norton takes her cue from Director Tony Randall, former member of the Army Signal Corps, as Jack Salamance, veteran and member of the permanent company, looks on.—Veterans Administration Photos.

Undersheriff William Woods came home yesterday on the last day of the deer season with a forked horn he shot on snow point ridge. The deer weighed about 100 pounds.

Deputy Sheriff Carl Larsen in the same general vicinity killed a four pointer weighing 200 pounds which he chased out of the brush himself.

Ray Wilde Jr., came home from the Yuba Pass country with a forked horn weighing 125 pounds.

Citations from the sermon. Philippians 1:8 10. "And this I pray that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ."

NEVADA CITY HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS

By HENRY MURPHY

MAJORETTES PERFORM FOR FOOTBALL FANS

Those high stepping majorettes led by Genevieve Ellis really went through the paces last Friday, October 18, in Grass Valley by performing for the Nevada City-Marysville football spectators.

Using new drills and featuring new skill, the group made a colorful pattern on the field with their pleated gold skirts, hats and white boots.

They were accompanied by the band, under the direction of Franz Luschen, in this first public performance of the year.

YELLOWJACKETS TO MEET TIGERS

Nevada City Yellowjackets and the Yuba City Tigers meet in Yuba City tomorrow afternoon at 3 p. m. for a fight to the finish. Both teams are fairly evenly matched and both are planning on victory.

Loss of players from the varsity squad such as Jack Coley, Stanley Bates, John Morrison and Kenneth Lanius will weaken its strength, but not sufficiently to give Yuba City an overconfident feeling.

YELLOWJACKETS TIE MARYSVILLE 0-0

One of the most outstanding games of the football season was played last Friday night on the Hennessy Field in Grass Valley featuring Nevada City Yellowjackets against the Marysville Indians.

Repeated trials at scoring failed but a great deal of the ground covered was due to the combined efforts of Stroh, Anderson, Marsh and Tobiassen who were faithfuly backed by their hard hitting squad.

Even with such perfect timing and playing ability of both sides, no score was made and the game ended much as it started, Nevada City 0, Marysville 0.

C TEAM CHALLENGES YUBA CITY

Tomorrow afternoon Nevada City will clash against the Yuba City five on Yuba City's home court, in the first out of town game of the season.

Nevada City may be somewhat handicapped inasmuch as Yuba City is a strange court, however victory for either team will be difficult since both teams are fairly evenly matched in ability as well as physically.

The game scheduled last Friday with Marysville was forfeited to Nevada City which made the score 1-0 in favor of Nevada City.

AROUND SCHOOL

The shop classes are putting out some beautiful home furnishings such as desks, chests of drawers and even a model cannon. Night classes are working on cocktail tables, lamps and hardwood coasters.

Chemistry classes have been experimenting with gases and also the basic principles of the Atomic Theory, but don't worry, they haven't produced any atomic bombs yet.

Football is out of the boys PE classes for the season while a form of soccer is being used.

Freshman classes have finished court procedure in the form of mock trials.

Journalism students are very enthusiastic about their work since they received an invitation by the Sacramento Bee to visit their plant and radio station.

It takes more than rain to stop the Yellowjackets football practice, because the gym seems to suit their purposes very well.

Fur Snowsuits

Fur snowsuits for small fry outside the arctic circle. Soft, lustrous fur made durable and waterproof by a plastic coating. The suits are fine for tramping back and forth to school, for the backyard snowball fight, for coasting. Mother will approve because the fur, in addition to its sturdiness, requires no special pampering, is reasonably priced. Designs by Max Koch in red, white and brown Bonmouton (Eitingon-dyed lamb), revolutionary new processed lambskin which is vastly extending the range of uses for which fur is practical.

Aged Resident Of Forest Borne To Rest

Funeral services under direction of Hooper and Weaver of Grass Valley, were conducted in Forest Wednesday for Mrs. Mary Meehan, a resident of this town for 60 years. Interment was in the Forest Cemetery.

Mrs. Meehan was born in Plumas County, 83 years ago. She died in San Francisco Saturday. Surviving are her sisters, Mrs. Sarah Killeghan and Mrs. Frank Delaney, both of San Francisco.

Rosary services were held in the Hooper and Weaver Mortuary chapel Tuesday evening.

Nielson Sentenced To 6 Months In Jail

Elmer Nielsen of Grass Valley, charged with burglary, was yesterday sentenced to six months in the county jail as a condition of two years probation.

Nielsen was charged with entering the office of the Scotia Mine in Grass Valley and stealing assaying equipment, among which were a valuable scales used for weighing gold. Some of the missing articles were found in his home and he pleaded guilty in August. He has since been out on $500 bail pending sentence.

AUTOMOTIVE PAYROLLS

Payrolls in the automobile industry have hit an all time high of $36,000,000 weekly to 699,000 workers. This amounts to an increase of 76 per cent in monetary payments and 25 per cent in number of workers over 1941 the last peace time year. In contrast less than half of the 3,687,745 units turned out in the first eight months of that year have been produced in the same period of time in 1946.

About the only thing the modern girl can cook as good as her mother is some man's goose.

More than 16,500 or 60 per cent of the employes of a large oil company have been with the organization more than a decade.

BILLY BRAND
STORIES OF HOW NAMES HELPED MAKE AMERICA GREAT HERE'S WHY YOUR SHOES FIT SO WELL, BILLY.
THE SHOES OF THE LAST CENTURY WERE GOOD BUT TO BUY A PAIR TOOK A LONG TIME.
IF I COULD ONLY HAVE ONE PAIR WITH BUCKLES!
YOUR PA SAYS YOU MAY... FOR YOUR WEDDING.
IN 1866 PROGRESSIVE MANUFACTURERS BEGAN TO MARK THEIR SHOES WITH THEIR NAMES SO THAT ANYBODY COULD FIND THE WORKMANSHIP, STYLE AND QUALITY WANTED.
GIVE ME A NEW PAIR BY THE SAME MAKER.
IN EARLIEST COLONIAL TIMES FAMILIES MADE THEIR OWN SHOES OR HAD THEM MADE BY ITINERANT COBBLERS.
SEE WHAT NICE WORK PATIENCE IS DOING ON THAT SHOE?
SHE'LL MAKE SOME MAN A GOOD WIFE SOMEDAY.
AFTER FINDING A TRUSTWORTHY COBBLER IT WAS NECESSARY TO BE MEASURED, THEN WAIT MONTHS UNTIL THE SHOES WERE FINISHED.
THAT'S ALL TODAY, MADAM. IN TWO MONTHS I'LL HAVE THEM READY TO TRY ON.
OTHERS FOLLOWED SUIT AND MADE US THE BEST SHOE NATION IN THE WORLD...WHICH WE STILL ARE AFTER YEARS OF RATIONING.
PRETTY SMOOTH, JANE.
THEY'RE 3 YEARS OLD, BUT SEE THE NAME ON THEM!
BUT IN 1750 A SHOEMAKER OF LYNN, MASS., EMPLOYING SEVERAL WORKERS BEGAN TO PRODUCE UNORDERED SHOES WHICH HE LATER SOLD.
WHO WOULD ORDER SO MANY SHOES?
NO ONE. I'M GOING TO PEDDLE THEM THROUGH THE COUNTRY.
BUT THE SEWING MACHINE, INVENTED IN 1846, REVOLUTIONIZED THE SHOE MAKING BUSINESS.
WITH THIS MACHINE WE CAN TURN OUT 5 TIMES AS MANY SHOES.
SUPPOSE SOME DAY FOLKS CAN HAVE TWO PAIRS APIECE?
WHILE G.I. SHOES MADE BY THESE SAME COMPANIES ARE THE BEST-FITTING, BEST-WEARING ANY ARMY EVER HAD!

THE VETERAN'S FRIEND

Q. If a disabled veteran completes his on-the-job training and is unemployed can he draw unemployment compensation?

A. Yes, under Public Law 346, he can draw adjusted unemployment compensation up to a period of 52 weeks provided he is able and available for work at the time and has not drawn compensation previously.

x x x

Q. Do disabled veterans have any preference over other veterans in purchase of war surplus materials?

A. No. The War Assets Administration has classified all veterans in one group. The WAA gives veterans first choice on a number of items, and veteran priority is topped only by the federal agencies of the U. S. Government.

x x x

Q. Is a veteran disabled in occupation service or during the present emergency period eligible for membership in the Disabled American Veterans.

A. Yes. Until the President declares World War II and the present emergency officially at an end all members of the armed forces who are disabled or handicapped in service are eligible for membership in the DAV as wartime disabled veterans.

x x x

Q. Is it possible for a disabled veteran taking vocational training under Public Law 16, the disabled veterans bill, to make a loan from the government?

A. Loans not to exceed $100 may be made to disabled veterans approved for vocational rehabilitation training when need is shown.

x x x

Q. Has the Veterans Administration approved the plan to issue prosthetic service cards to amputee veterans?

A. Yes. Veterans wearing artificial limbs and who are entitled to repairs at government expense may obtain a Prosthetic Service Card. This card enables the veteran to obtain immediate repair service up to a limit of $35 without prior approval from the Veterans Administration.

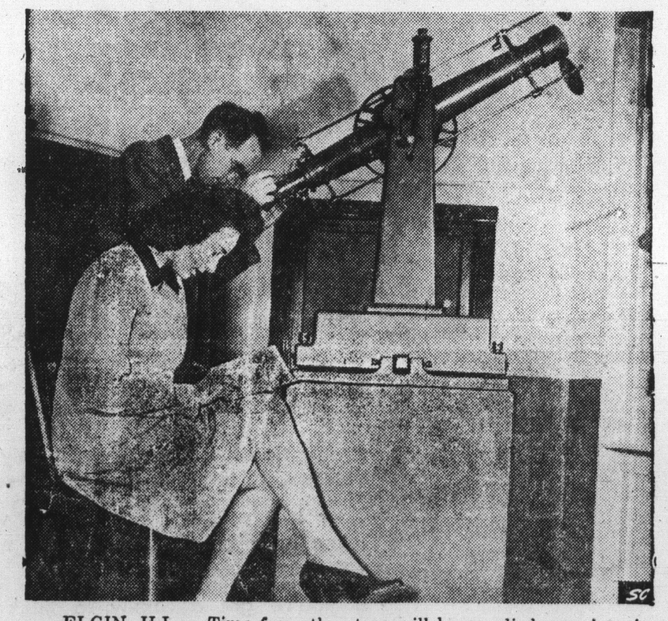
Time From the Stars



ELGIN, ILL. — Time from the stars will be supplied a major air transport line by Elgin Observatory, it has been announced here by the Elgin National Watch Company. Observation of the heavens to establish exact time, as illustrated here by Astronomer Robert Miller and Betty Smith, is made every clear night.

The company, largest of the three American fine watch manufacturers, currently is seeking an additional 1,000 employes to resume full-stride peacetime production.

Prospects are the production goal will be reached "sometime in 1947," officials say. They add that their industry faces an unusual situation in that no backlog of civilian orders is waiting. While American watch companies were "all out" in the manufacture of precision instruments for our military forces, an unlimited supply of Swiss watch movements was permitted to enter the United States. So reconversion means, to the watchmakers, not only resuming production but winning back customers.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

On Playing the Fiddle Badly

A favorite recreation in our town is getting together in one or another's home and making music. There's somebody at the piano; a guitar; a fiddle player; and Molly Birtles even has a harp!

What comes out isn't the best music in the whole world. In fact, a lot of it is downright bad. But nobody even thinks to question or to criticize.

Because the spirit of harmony is there—harmony between folks who like each other's company, who enjoy the simple, homey atmosphere—with nothing more exciting than old songs, and a glass of moderate beer or cider.

From where I sit, it's a heap more important to be a poor fiddle player, than not to play at all. More important to be a part of the American scene—with its community music, home entertainment, friendly glass of beer — than to hold out for professional perfection. (Besides, I like to play the fiddle—even badly!)

Veterans' News

The goal of the Veterans Administration—real home town service to veterans—is gradually becoming a reality.

With the addition of 11 new offices, the VA now maintains 39 units of different sizes from the Tehachapis to the Oregon border.

In almost every town with 5000 or more population, there is a veterans administration representative, usually a young World War II veteran who has been trained to know the answers concerning federal benefits due ex-servicemen.

Offices in the smaller cities are not staffed to handle all types of VA services, but they can take care of the majority of problems which bother veterans. They can fill out application forms for education or training, give information about loan guarantees, - insurance reinstatement, compensation claims and tell an ex-GI how to apply for admittance to a VA hospital if he is ill. Even though a particular question is not within the province of VA, representatives are instructed to keep themselves informed so they can help get the right answer.

Q: I understand that the veterans administration will pay for medicine needed to treat a veteran. Is any ex-serviceman eligible?

A: There is such a service operating in California. However, only veterans with service connected disabilities are entitled to have prescriptions filled by private pharmacists at the expense of the veterans administration. Furthermore, the prescription must be written by a physician authorized by the VA to treat the veteran. The pharmacy filling the prescription must be a member of the California Pharmaceutical Association and must have signed a sub-contract with the association, agreeing to the terms of the VA contract. A pharmacist not a member of that organization would not be reimbursed by the VA for the cost of the prscription.

Q: Do the educational provisions of the servicemen's readjustment act permit a qualified veteran to take a correspondence course at government expense? Would I get a subsistence payment?

A: The VA is authorized to pay for courses taken by correspondence, if the school is approved. However no subsistence payments can be made to the veteran.

Q: I am carrying $10,000 worth of GI term insurance. Can I convert part of that now and the balance later on?

A: Yes. You can convert $10,000 or more in multiples of $500 and the balance at any time before the expiration of your term insurance.

LOOKING AHEAD

BY GEORGE S. BENSON
President--Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

On Record

"Freedom is more honest than government and so much more productive." This proverb might be added appropriately and soon to the ever-growing lexicon of "immortal words." It came from the lips of Ralph W. Gwinn of Bronxville, N. Y., toward the end of a speech he made in Congress, last April 16. The address was a review of 40 centuries of price fixing by governments.

Down through the ages, Rep. Gwinn traced the dismal trail of political price pegging from King Hammurabi of Babylon, who died 2,242 years before Christ, to our own Chester Bowles. Each successive effort went to pot. The oldest pile of wreckage, marking a turn where some self-confident ruler locked his economic steering wheel, was in ancient Babylon.

And Many Others

Babylon was not the last nor the worst. Another notable catastrophe took place about 900 years later as a result of the wage and price freezing provisions of the Hittite Code. Popular pressure in Asia Minor influenced this case, but served to prove how even the ancient rulers ran afoul of sore resentment against their impractical tinkering with freedom of private enterprise.

France's egoistic Philip IV took prices in hand and created a painful scarcity of bread and clothing six centuries before Hitler. Three or more English kings took turns at issuing edicts against natural laws no less silly than Canute's ordering the tides not to come in. Without fail, price control systems have finally created scarcity instead of improving production.

The Emperor's OPA

The congressman's most colorful example was Rome. About 300 years before the birth of Christ, Emperor Diocletian set up a sort of OPA for the whole Roman Empire. Propaganda went out first, in an effort to sell the public on the idea that rulers were much smarter than mere people. After the edict, came a record-breaking swarm of ministers and magistrates to enforce prices.

Did the emperor make his prices hold? He did not! He fixed a death penalty on people who bought or sold above the ceiling but Diocletian had his little undercover problems like all the others who went in for governmental price manipulation. Not many "offenders" were executed. Magistrates took bribes, prices rose anyhow and overflowed into black-markets without number.

Taxes Climbed Higher

An interesting sidelight on the Roman affair was that all kinds of building stopped, arts and sciences fell into decay to such an extent that people almost forgot about excellence. They fashioned and used makeshifts exclusively. Good craftsmen went jobless, big business men fled into exile and small business men went bankrupt and hungry. And Rome fell.

But before the final collapse, before the tramp of armed aliens is heard in the streets, rulers, who have ruined the wealth of their country and the prosperity of their subjects, run out of money themselves. A hungry and angry people chased Diocletian out of Rome but his evil work was done. Taxes were devastating until Rome was a ruin. History has not one price-fixing plan fit to copy, here or anywhere.

Halloween Party Enjoyed By BPWC

The Nevada City BPWC enjoyed Halloween games and a potluck supper last night at the Scout Lodge. Pat Jackson, Mary Davies, Helen Berger and Dorothy Waggoner had charge of the affair being ably assisted by Ida Mae Foote.

PROBLEM OF INTOXICATION

The problem of intoxicated drivers and pedestrians is becoming increasingly acute, declares Bert Stewart, public safety director of National Automobile Club. Statistics compiled by the Department of Motor Vehicles show that prior to the war 8.5 per cent of all drivers involved in fatal or personal injury accidents had been drinking, but during the first four months of 1946 this figure increased to 13.8 per cent. A similar increase is likewise reported for pedestrians. The driver or walker who has been drinking is a menace to himself and others; his slowed reaction, eratic maneuvers and unpderictable actions are a hazard with which none — driver or walker, can successfully cope. The only safe plan for those who drink is not to drive or expose themselves to traffic after imbibing.

In 1873 a seawall several blocks east of the then shoreline at San Francisco was under construction to enable ships to unload directly at the city's wharves.

Veterans' Service Bureau

EDITOR'S NOTE: This newspaper, through special arrangement with the Washington Bureau of Western Newspaper Union at 1616 Eye Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., is able to bring readers this weekly column on problems of the veteran and serviceman and his family. Questions may be addressed to the above Bureau and they will be answered in a subsequent column. No replies can be made direct by mail, but only in the column which will appear in this newspaper regularly.

Factors That Determine Veteran's Pension Rate

Closest to the heart of every veteran who wears a wound stripe is adequate medical care. Gen. Omar Bradley, administrator of veterans' affairs, shortly after his appointment, picked as his assistant to have charge of the medical and surgical division of VA, a man who is no stranger to wounded vets.

He is Maj. Gen. Paul R. Hawley, who was chief surgeon of the European theater of war, and as such had under his direction 254,000 medical department men, including 16,000 doctors, 4,500 dentists and 18,000 nurses. Under his administration more than 1,500,000 patients were admitted to army hospitals in the European theater and of this number 340,000 were battle casualties. So General Hawley has had broad experience in caring for our fighting men in time of war and has been chosen to head up the medical branch of VA because of this experience and great sucess.

Under the expanding hospital program of VA, General Hawley is calling upon the best medical and surgical brains of the nation to take a hand in the great rehabilitation program of disabled veterans. The idea to take veterans' hospitals close to the medical centers of the nation reflects one of General Hawley's plans to decentralize and bring treatment as close to the home towns of the country as possible.

Questions and Answers

Q. Our boy was taken into the army. We are farming 520 acres of land, milking 12 to 20 cows by hand the year round, raising over 350 head of hogs a year. I am physically unfit to do any farm work. This work is all up to two boys 19 and 20, one a 4-F. We must hire a man to replace the boy that is gone. He has set aside $30 of his wages to help pay for this help. Will the government match this, and if so how do we go about getting it? This boy was really needed.—L. U., Gladbrook, Iowa.

A. Your local selective service board had the responsibility of deciding whether or not your boy was needed more on the farm than in the army. If they had decided he was needed there, he would have been given an agricultural deferment under the selective service law. No, there is no provision for the government to match the $30 per month. If you can prove a hardship case, which is unlikely, the boy could ask for a discharge on that ground. He would have to initiate the case through his commanding officer.

Q. Is the widow of a World War I veteran entitled to a pension if the husband's death is not connected with the war? Do World War I veterans receive pensions? If a disability allowance was discontinued and the case reviewed and refused again what can one do? Is the wife of a World War I veteran entitled to medical care?—Mrs. J. H., Tower, Minn.

A. Yes, the widow of a World War I veteran is entitled to a pension although death is not service connected. Only disabled veterans receive pensions. In case a disability allowance is discontinued and reviewed and refused again, the veteran has the right to appeal to a board of the VA. Wives of World War I veterans are not entitled to medical care.

Q. I have a lot on a main highway. I'd like to put up a business but in order to do this I need around $2,000. Could you send me full instructions on how to go about this matter and just what I must do?—Mr. H. F. S., Selma, Ala.

A. Go to your bank and ask if they will make you a G.I. loan on the proposition. If they consider it a good risk, they will take care of all the details.

Q. When and how is transportation for servicemen's kin available and what are the chances for the wife of a PFC whose husband is stationed in Regensberg, Germany? —Mrs. C. O. B., Chamberlain, S. D.

A. The serviceman must initiate the request with his commanding officer. If the request is granted you will be notified of all details. Only wives are eligible.

Q. I was discharged from the army in January, 1944, because of wounds received when I stepped on a land mine. I had temporary amnesia and head injuries. Have only a 45-degree extension of my left arm. Otherwise am in perfect shape. How do I go about getting back into the army?—M. N., Eugene, Ore.

A. The army has lowered its regulations somewhat upon physical requirements and would suggest you discuss the question with your local recruiting office, or you may contact your draft board.

Two Sisters Enjoy Reunion At Forest Springs

Two sisters are enjoying a reunion after a separation of 33 years in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Surran in the Forest Springs section. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, the latter the sister of Mrs. Surran, are visiting them. The Smiths live in Oregon but hope to find a home in California.

Mrs. Smith left Grass Valley when a child and with her parents settled in Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Parker and son Irwin of Medford, Oregon, are also guests at th Surran home. Mrs. Parker and Mr. Surran are brother and sister.

FORT ROSS

Thirteen miles north of the mouth of the Russian River on State highway 1, is Fort Ross built by the Russians in 1812. The stockade of redwood palings once surrounded a commandant's home, barracks, jail, warehouses, two octagonal blockhouses and a chapel. The stockade, lookout tower and chapel have been restored as a state monument. The inhabitants were Russians and Aleut Indians from Alaska, who farmed and hunted to provide food for the Russians in the frozen north. They withdrew to Alaska in 1841 selling the property.

FOR VETERANS' WELFARE
VOTE "YES" ON PROPOSITION 2!

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Disabled American Veterans urge you to vote "YES" on Proposition 2 on the November ballot.

This measure will legalize greyhound racing in California — under strict State supervision — and turn over 4 per cent of all track wagers to a Veterans' Fund administered by the State Department of Veterans' Affairs.

It will perform a distinct service for California veterans. It will guarantee ADEQUATE FINANCING of State-sponsored welfare and rehabilitation activities, including support of the Veterans' Home at Yountville. It will relieve the taxpayer of the burden of paying for these services; greyhound racing will pay the bill instead.

California veterans ask you to support them in this campaign.

Let's Carry Through - Vote "YES" on 2!

TRAVELLING VA TO HELP VETS HERE NOV. 6

The Veterans Administrations "home service" mobile office will pay a close to home visit for Nevada City veterans when it stops in Grass Valley Wednesday, November 6, during an 800 mile tour of Northern California communities.

Staffed with a four man office force and prepared to answer questions or give assistance to ex-servicemen and women on any problem handled by the veterans administration, the office bus will park between Bank and Main Streets on Mill Street and remain open from 11 to 9 p. m.

Veterans who plan to visit the office on wheels were advised to bring their original discharge papers and copies of any correspondence they have had with the veterans administration. Amputees seeking certification for free automobiles will be able to fill out the necessary forms, and the latest information on congressional changes in GI insurance, loans and other benefits will be available.

"We are determined to give veterans in small cities and rural areas the same type of service rendered in San Francisco or Sacramento," explained Robert P. Shields, VA regional manager in San Francisco. "The mobile office is proving that it can do the job."

Leaving Grass Valley on Thursday for Auburn, the mobile unit will wind up its tour with visits to Placerville and Roseville and return to San Francisco November 10.

George Boles will head the office here. Robert Little, Walter Ackland and Martin Kilkenny will assist.

The traveling unit supplements the established Veterans Information Center at 111 South Auburn Street in Grass Valley. This office in Grass Valley is open five days a week and is staffed by members of the County Service Office and the Veterans Job Placement section of the USES.
